How to Contact Chase Travel Customer Service

The correct customer service option depends on how your reservation was booked and which Chase credit card you used. Chase recommends using the contact information included in your booking confirmation or signing in to your Chase account to access booking-specific support.

You can also get help through:

- The Chase website
- The Chase Mobile® app
- Secure online messages
- The "My Trips" section of your Chase account

These channels allow you to review reservations, check travel details, and, for eligible bookings, request changes or cancellations.

Booking Flights Through Chase Travel

Eligible Chase cardholders can search and book flights directly through the Chase Travel platform.

The booking process typically includes:

1. Signing in to your Chase account.
2. Accessing Chase Travel.
3. Searching for flights by destination and travel dates.
4. Comparing available airlines and fares.
5. Selecting your preferred itinerary.
6. Paying with your Chase card, Ultimate Rewards® points, or a combination of both.
7. Receiving your booking confirmation by email.

Many travelers appreciate the ability to compare multiple airlines and use rewards in a single booking process.

Using Ultimate Rewards® Points for Travel

One of the most popular features of Chase Travel is the ability to redeem Ultimate Rewards® points.

Eligible cardholders may use points toward:

- Domestic flights
- International airfare
- Hotels
- Rental cars
- Cruises
- Vacation packages
- Activities

Depending on your Chase credit card, you may also have the option to combine points with cash if you don't have enough points to cover the full cost of your trip.

Managing Your Travel Reservation

After completing your booking, you can usually manage your reservation through your Chase account.

Depending on the airline or travel provider, you may be able to:

- View your itinerary
- Update contact information
- Check booking status
- Review cancellation options
- Download your confirmation
- Access your airline confirmation code

Some changes are subject to the airline's fare rules or the hotel's cancellation policy.

Can You Change or Cancel a Booking?

Many Chase Travel bookings can be changed or canceled, but eligibility depends on the airline, hotel, or other travel provider.

Factors that may affect your options include:

- Ticket type
- Fare rules
- Supplier policies
- Cancellation deadlines
- Refund eligibility

If your itinerary is affected by an airline schedule change or other travel disruption, review the options available through your Chase account or contact the appropriate support team.

Tips Before Contacting Customer Service

To make your support experience more efficient:

- Keep your confirmation email available.
- Have your itinerary number ready.
- Know the travel dates and passenger names.
- Review the supplier's cancellation policy.
- Check whether your booking can be managed online before calling.

Preparing this information in advance can help resolve your request more quickly.
